The Sport & Fun is a quirky fixed-bed caravan with a large garage and a twin-entrance door, built in Germany to a high standard by Knaus. The 'Black Selection' is the sought-after specification level, featuring grey alloy wheels, black & grey interior seats, and a black & grey exterior. This example was supplied by us to its first owner in April 2025, and with the first leak test being completed by us, we will transfer the remaining Knaus warranty package for the component parts and bodyshell. As a bonus, this caravan comes complete with a Powrtouch EVO auto-engage motor mover.
